

Ethical Values of Publications

IJACS Editorial team appreciate you for choosing to visit our website where we aim to publish the high quality of research in a rapid way through the double blind review process. We bring the highest quality research to the world academic community by facilitating rapid time publication and minimizing administrative costs as well as provide authors with excellent level of services which allow their research works to be extensively propagated as possible. We provide free access to research information around the world through online without financial, technical and legal barriers.

IJACS adopts the Committee on Publication Ethics Code of Conduct and Best Practice Guidelines for Authors, Reviewers and Journal Editors on publication ethics.

IJACS is not ordinarily in a position to investigate unprofessional or unethical allegations themselves, but editors have a responsibility to alert appropriate bodies (for example, employers, funders, regulatory authorities) and urge them to investigate.

IJACS encourage authors and readers to inform them if they discover errors in published work.

IJACS publishes 'withdrawals' if work is proven to be unprofessional or unethical, or 'expressions of concern' if editors have logical suspicions of misconduct.

IJACS strongly advice that the following must be confirmed:

For Authors :

It is unethical or unprofessional to submit a manuscript to more than one journal concurrently.

Only unpublished manuscripts should be submitted.

Submitted manuscripts must be the original work of the author(s).

Any conflict of interest must be clearly stated.

All errors discovered in the manuscript after submission must be swiftly communicated to the Editor.

The sources of data used in the development of the manuscript should be acknowledged.

For Reviewers:

That any observed conflict of interest during the review process must be communicated to the Editor

That all manuscripts are reviewed in fairness based on the intellectual content of the paper regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, religion, citizenry nor political values of author(s)

For Editors:

That information relating manuscripts are kept confidential

That any observed conflict of interest relating manuscripts must be disclosed

That all manuscripts are evaluated in fairness based on the intellectual content of the paper regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, religion, citizenry nor political values of authors

The Editorial Board takes responsibility for making publication decisions for submitted manuscripts based on the reviewer's evaluation of the manuscript, policies of the journal editorial board and legal restrain acting against plagiarism, libel and copyright infringement.

That any information that may be the reason for the rejection of publication of a manuscript must be communicated to the Editor

That all information relating to the manuscript is kept confidential
